

Friday a.m.

Dear Ferrater Mora-

Yes, I enjoyed our talk of the other day and I certainly could do with encouragement re/ My photography.

I enjoyed reading the Parable although I am not in complete accord with your reactions to Easy Rider and Hair.

I talked to several people and I wonder if Monday March 9th would be convenient for you to show your films in Erdnman's Cathedral at 7.30? If it is, I'll ask the dorm president.

I am looking forward to seeing the. I'll try to find you in your office (clearly (and wisely!) Friday a.m. is not an at home time) or else give you a ring next weeks.

I am off to discuss the financing of my photography hopes... perhaps I'll photograph commuters on the train again.

I am glad (!) you retracted your categorization of me –in jest or otherwise, and it is more than “nice” to find someone with similar interests-
