forward to resuming my parliamentary life in the seventeenth century when you arrive in London on Tuesday. I will leave the twentieth century for you to manage.

I hope you have a profitable & peaceful month & look forward to seeing you in July.

My best to Renee

I presume that by this time, all Ernst has managed to get Cullotta into a fever. If you think it advisable, you can narrow clude. As far as I am concerned - we are sticking by the arrangement which you & I discussed with him in April - & which I cleared with Jim the Buffon insects the Diagnosis that was discussed with us at the meeting and we are still in the middle of it after going all through the year without a "confrontation" it was somewhat startling to be faced with the "non-negotiable demands" from that quarter

Two days after Commence
