Dear Professor Ferrater:

We were delighted to receive your original and ~~delight-~~ fully written article on Calderón, and we shall be honored to publish it in the Hispanic Review. Attached you will find our official form acceptance letter containing a request for a short biographical summary to be published in our "Authors of Articles" section in the issue in which your article appears.

The panel of readers that examined your manuscript had only one suggestion. It felt that the sequence of ideas in your first paragraph might be somewhat clarified by a slight revision. The panel offers the enclosed text simply as an example of the kind of revision it has in mind, but it would be very pleased to have you suggest your own alternative reading if the enclosed is not to your liking.

Many thanks again for sending your engaging essay to the Hispanic Review. My colleagues joining me in sending you best wishes.

Cordially yours,

Russell P. Sebold
