Professor José Ferrater Mora
Department of Philosophy
Bryn Mawr College
Bryn Mawr, Pennsylvania

Dear Professor Ferrater Mora:

The Department of Philosophy and the Department of Spanish and Portuguese would like to have you be on campus March 21-24. Our spring vacation starts a bit later.

I am scheduling your lectures in English for Wednesday, March 21, and Thursday, March 22 at 4:30 p.m. We should like to have you speak Friday afternoon in Spanish to graduate and faculty of the Department of Spanish and Portuguese. Friday evening my wife and I expect you for dinner. There will be guests from the Department of Philosophy and several of my colleagues from Spain.

Enclosed are some travel forms which will make it possible for you to save the tax. Indiana University is a state institution and for that reason no tax is collected for travel on business. As soon as I hear from you, I shall reserve a room in the Union Building. It is in the center of the campus. The room is comfortable and I am quite sure you will enjoy staying there.

As I indicated, the best way is to come to Indianapolis by plane and then take a bus from there to Bloomington. I am having printed a number of copies which will announce the title and place of your lectures.

Pardon my delay in answering you, but the chairman of Philosophy was out of the city for several days and I was unable to communicate with him.

Sincerely yours,

Harvey L. Johnson
