

INDIANA UNIVERSITY

BLOOMINGTON, INDIANA

DEPARTMENT OF SPANISH AND PORTUGUESE

BALLANTINE HALL

January 25, 1962

Professor José Ferrater Mora
Department of Philosophy
Bryn Mawr College
Bryn Mawr, Pennsylvania

Dear Professor Ferrater Mora:

The Departments of Philosophy and Spanish and Portuguese will be pleased to have you lecture in English on "The Nature of Religious Experience" and "The Languages of History."

I am pleased to see that you will take into account the philosophic positions of Unamuno and Ortega. It will be particularly pleasing if you will lecture in Spanish on Calderón's world. Kindly let me know if this arrangement now meets with your approval.

It would also facilitate arrangements for your coming if I know approximately the day and time of your arrival. It will probably be convenient for you to come to Indianapolis by plane and from Indianapolis to Bloomington by bus.

Sincerely yours,

Harvey L. Johnson
Chairman

g

29-I-62.