

June 16, 1975

Dear José,

In a recent note that I posted to you, I mentioned that I'll be down to Bryn Mawr in the second half of July. I hope that my memory that you will be back then is correct.

The dates of my stay there are settled now (I don't think they were when I wrote my earlier note). I'll be there from July 19th until July 25th; I'll be staying again at Yildiz van Hulstyn's though she herself will be away in another state for most of my stay this time.

At the very least, while there I expect to reacquaint myself with some dialogues I've not read in a while. But I do hope for some talk with you.

Sincerely,
[Signatura]