Dear Mr. F. M.,

I expect to drive down to Bryn Mawr on the 15th, eight days from now, to stay at Pat McPherson's until the 19th. I'd like to see you for lunch or dinner or whatever and consequently on the morning of the 16th, a Wednesday, I'll try to telephon you. Or perhaps I'll just come over to your office to see if you are there.

Sincerely, Jim:
