

Dear Professor,

as I am publishing an Italian edition of Wittgenstein's Tractatus Logico-Philosophicus, I would like to insert in the Bibliography, which I am appending to it, the exact reference of your article on Wittgenstein, which I only was able to see in its Italian translation under the title "Wittgenstein genio della distruzione" (in Aut Aut May 52).

May therefore ask you to let me have title and bibliographical data of the original?

I am awfully sorry to disturb you, but this, I assure you, is the last resort: I have been looking through Reviews and Bibliographies without succeeding in finding your original article, and thus time is gone and now the book is already in its page-proofs and will be published in a few weeks.

If you can help me, please write to me at following address: Giancarlo Colombo, Aloisianum, Gallarate, Varese, Italy. Although I usually live in Oxford, I'll be leaving soon and spend Christmas holidays in Italy.

I thank you so much and beg your pardon for my bad English.

Sincerely yours

Giancarlo Colombo
