Dear Mr Ferrater,

On December 17th, before leaving Bryn Mawr I received, via campus mail, the M.A. paper of a Mr. Placken, on instruction at Rosemont College seeking admission to Bryn Mawr's graduate school. I wasn't able to read the paper with any care before leaving, but from what I did read, I would affirm the department's previous decision to reject him: Mr [Habrigen?] checked his name and after it wrote 'admit'. I assume this indicates his decision. Mrs Potter simply checked her name.

I thought you might want this information before I am able to return the paper to you on January 4th.

My best wishes to you and your family for a happy holiday reason.

Sincerely
