Dear Professor Mora:

The Department of Philosophy at The American University conducts annually a Graduate Philosophy Colloquium in conjunction with its developing graduate program in philosophy. It is my pleasure to invite you to speak to this Colloquium during the second semester of the academic year, 1970-71, if this might be possible within your schedule. The group normally meets on Tuesday afternoons at 3:30 P.M. Let me suggest as a possibility the date of April 20, 1971 for your appearance. For this I am able to offer you an honorarium of $75.00 plus your expenses.

Needless to say, we hope it will be possible for you to accept this invitation. If you can accept, in your reply I should be pleased to receive a proposed title for your presentation as we shall soon be sending the spring semester program to the printer.

I look forward to hearing from you at your earliest convenience.

Sincerely yours,

Harold A. Durfee, Chairman
Dept. of Philosophy and Religion
