Dear Professor Ferrater:

I have asked the Controller of the University to send you a check for $10.00, which I hope will adequately cover the expenses you incurred on your trip to Princeton. As I explained to you here, our funds do not permit us to do anything more than pay expenses; but we regret very much that we can not make any proper compensation to you for the extremely interesting and suggestive paper which you read. The questions and the discussion must have made it quite evident to you how much the audience was stimulated by your presentation; and our department wants me to express its pleasure and appreciation of your coming here to give us the benefit of your researches.

Yours cordially,

Robert Scoon
