Dear Professor Mora,

How kind of you to trouble to write. I got a great deal of pleasure out of your conversation when you came to lunch on the occasion of your visit to Chicago. I am touched that you thought it worth while to get hold of my book, Cultural Foundations of Industrial Civilization. If you should find occasion to do so, please let me know what you think of it. I hope to develop some of the ideas that are in it further, as I indicate in the preface.

With every good wish.

Yours sincerely,

Professor Jose Ferrater Mora
