Dear Mr. Ferrater Mora,

Of course, I remember our meeting four years ago on a Europe-bound boat; it was I who discovered your name on the passenger list. This time you discovered my book and I want to thank you for your kind words. In fact, I would make bold to ask you to review it for some publication if the opportunity presents itself. It is very hard, as you may well know, to find reviewers whose range and depth of comprehension one may trust.

Thank you also for the enclosed little essay, an excellently reasoned one and almost satisfying to me. I enclose what may be considered a short answer to it, my description of what my book is about, in the Meridian company journal.

With best regards,

Sincerely yours,

Thomas Molnar
