Dear José:

Forgive me for not following up on our correspondence more expeditiously. I had to wait for the Philosophy Department to fix its schedule for the spring, and then things got rather hectic here with a variety of problems. Always the unexpected!

I am so glad that you have decided to come to lecture here and that you find the terms agreeable. We have found that the week of March 4th is a good time. Either Monday and Tuesday or Wednesday and Thursday might work for us well.

Please let me know if this schedule suits you or if you would prefer that I look for another set of days.

Meanwhile, I hope you and Priscilla are well and that you will have a very happy holiday season.

Yours cordially,
