Dear Tom,

Please forgive my belated answer to your letter of June 4. It took longer to recover from major surgery that I had expected (or wished). Fortunately, I am feeling a little stronger every day.

As I told you in our telephone conversation, I am delighted (as well as honored) by your invitation to serve on the Advisory Board of your Foundation. I gladly accept this honor, and I very much hope that I will be able to contribute to the ends of the Foundation with whatever skills I may possess.

I sent you by separate mail the volume, Transparencies, with addenda to the biosketch and to the bibliography (books only). I will be happy to supply any other information you may need. I also sent you a copy of your letter so you may confirm, or correct, the name of publisher, street, etc. I will be happy to produce a (most warm) letter of recommendation. I am sorry "Crítica" (another Barcelona publisher) did not favorably respond to my recommendation. They liked the book very much, but were afraid of investing a sum which they were not sure would produce (prompt) financial rewards. This is, of course, a reflection of publishers' mind.

Yours sincerely,
