Dear Sir:

I have your letter of December 19th.

I find that we are at fault. The print was scheduled for shipment to you in November at your request. Due to mis-filing, however, actual shipment never took place--the card was filed in the "shipment made; awaiting return" file, instead of being placed in the "to be shipped" file for the next day's shipments.

I sincerely hope that we have not caused you sharp concern.

I have today, personally, shipped a carton containing your three-reel print to you at the above address, via special delivery and insured; the receipt number is 249440.

Should you wish to reimburse us for the postage costs, they total $2.40.

Please accept my apologies for our clumsiness.

Leslie Trumbull
-secretary

P.S. The new catalogue is at press and should be ready for mailing before the end of January. An information copy will be forwarded to you at that time.
