Dear Sir:

You will be relieved to learn that your print of A HERO OF OUR TIME did indeed arrive, without customs duty or delay, and has been delivered without any of the expected red-tape.

This totally fortunate occurrence was due partly, I would assume, to the fact that no insurance or valuation declaration was made by your correspondent in Spain.
Hence the package was passed customs-free.

Such once-in-a-million luck. And, I hasten to add,
not to be expected to occur again.

So all is well, and we can now, hopefully, look for rental orders for your film as a result of the mass-mailing of our catalogue which took place last month.

Your very generous donation to the catalogue costs
is very much appreciated. Thankyou!

Sincerely,
