

PRBSIDENT'S OFFICE

BRYN MAWR COLLEGE
BRYN MAWR
PENNSYLVANIA 19010

January 1, 1961

Dear Jose,

When College opens on January 19th I believe that the community would enjoy and benefit from any wit or wisdom you might be willing to bring to it at the convocation.

Last year I asked Charles Mitchell to give us any advice he wished to as he looked forward to his own retirement and both students and members of the faculty seemed to find his remarks provocative and worthwhile.

I have asked Elizabeth Foster and Steve Cary, who retires this January after a long and important career at Havelford and in the larger Quaker community, if they would consider speaking too.

my suggested time is five to eight minutes apiece.

Today I leave for a week in California and will be back in the office on January 8th. I hope very much that you will agree to speak.

Best wishes for 1981 and warm regards,

Pat
