Dear Professor Ferrater Mora:

I regret to have to return to you this carefully prepared and scholarly article. You have uncovered some very interesting details about the early history of the term 'ontologia,' but the topic is not of sufficient general interest, in my opinion, to justify our accepting it for publication in the Archiv. Why don't you include this, or a condensed version of it, in a couple of paragraphs at the beginning of your article on Ontology in the next edition of your Dictionary?

Thanking you for submitting it to us, I am

Sincerely yours,

Glenn R. Morrow
