Dear friend,

I just found your letter of October 9 that arrived at my daughter's home when I was staying in hospital. As you already know, I had a heart attack after which I remained in bed for around 6 weeks. Since then I have almost completely recovered but have to take some precautions concerning my activities.

We were sorry not to meet you in Dubrovnik at our last meeting on pluralism and truth.

Should I go back to the United States I would certainly let you know. Should you pass through Brussels, please let me know, I would be glad to meet you again.

With my best regards.

Yours sincerely,

Ch. Perelman
