Dear Professor Ferrater Mora:

I was delighted to receive your letter accepting our invitation to speak at Penn State. April 7 (Thursday) would be best for us, and we shall start the publicity rolling unless we hear from you to the contrary by the end of the week. Your choice of topic is fine and sounds most interesting -- no doubt you can look forward to lively discussion afterwards. By the way, the time of the seminar is 3.45 pm rather than in the evening. Nevertheless, we certainly hope that you will stay overnight so that we can have a visit. I suggest that you write me by return mail confirming your stay overnight (if that is most convenient for you) and I will reserve a room for you in the best hotel (The Hittany Lion Inn, on campus).

I look forward to hearing from you on hotel plans, and especially to meeting you. Oh, yes, please let me know how you plan to arrive, so that I can meet you at the appropriate terminal, if need be.

Yours truly,

Stanley Rosen
