Dear Jose,

I have at last heard that my book has been accepted by the Yale Press, and not without difficulties; but these were overcome through the wonderful faith in the merits of my work shown by Jane Isay. I want to tell you at once how grateful I am to you for your part in this. Please rest assured that I will not forget your assistance.

I hope that Jaime is doing well. If there is anything I can do in that line, you have only to let me know.

With best regards to you and your wife from us both,

Stanley
