Dear Jose Ferrater Mora,

How very kind of you to answer my note of appreciation!
But just what I would expect after reading your books.

It is four o'clock in the morning of Dec. 31st and I suppose any sensible person would be asleep instead of rereading your book as I must take it back to the library so that someone else can have it.

PP. 5-6-7-8-9-12-13 have quotes I must copy and when I wake up I get up and do such things. Then I go back to my bed and sleep refreshed from reading.

My B.P. is dangerously high again, but I do think that medication four times daily and adequate rest has lowered it.

I must warn you I am insatiably curious, but I hope not harmfully so. That possibility distresses me.

How old a man are you? Travels in Spain, France,
Italy, Germany, Belgium, Great Britain, Cuba, Chile,
etc. must have been a fine preparation for writing
your book.

May I wish you and your family a most rewarding
New Year, with the hope that you are enjoying the blessings of this season.

E-I-58

All best,

Evelyn M. Seybold
