Dear Sr. Ferrater,

Please, do not think that I have forgotten about your book! As of this week I am to be in Phila. until summer and intend to devote all my time to its translation. I am not as "vago" as you probably suppose, but have been sick –are these colds anywhere but in the USA?- and has not had time to finish the second chapter. As soon as the first is typed I will bring it to you for perusal. If you are so out of patience with me that you have found another translator please inform me.

Sincerely yours,
[signatura]
