Dear Prof. Ferrater,

I am passing along to you this important letter since it seems that no copy is being sent to you. There are two questions about our names. My answer is that I do want my name to appear as Philip Silver (not Philip W. Silver).

The more important point is about, as you see, the royalty agreement. As Mr. Gosling states it is very much all right with me. But it seems prejudicial to you. However, if you o.k. the agreement and write Gosling to that effect, I would also tell him where you will be since the "formal memorandum of agreement" sounds like a formidable document which might require your signature. And it certainly won't be ready by the 8th of June. As stated the contract will mean that I won't get any money until after publication and so I will try to ask for an advance.

Please either answer this letter yourself, answering question about the 'in Jose and your decision about royalty agreement, ~~xxxx~~ or send me your written answer and I will return it all to Mr. Gosling.

Best wishes for a pleasant "transpirinaic" trip.

Sincerely,
Philip Silver
