Bryn Mawr, Pa.

Dear Professor Ferrater Mora:

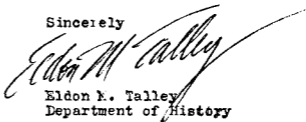

You were, perhaps, wondering what my opinion would be when I had finished reading it? (Mao of the Ceasars)

Well, frankly, I still liked it - very much! But perhaps for somewhat different reason than you might expect - or hope.

At the time I wrote to you I was preparing, for our Alumnae a reading list to enable them to keep alive some of the perspectives gained while in my classes. It was done at their request. I am sending you a copy of it with three additions that should have been included but which, somehow, got lost in the shuffle. I think you will find yourself among good and rather interesting companions whose books I have made central to the entire list.

Perhaps you will find the list interesting - for one reason or another.

Sincerely

Eldon K. Talley
