Dear Professor Mora:

A collage car driver will meet you at Cleveland Hopkins Airport, Flight Information Counter, main concourse, on Sunday, May 4, 6:18 p.m. or hour designated for that flight if [playlight Saunego Time?] brings a change, to drive you to The Meerlin Inn; where a room will award you. Your visit will be a great pleasure for all of us. I myself greatly admire your fine book Philosophy Today.

Sincerely,
