Dear Professor Furdus Herz:

I have written to Rahn, telling him that you have sent him your article at my suggestion, and adding (for what it is worth) my recommendation of it for Partisan Review. I hope the démarche will prove successful.

Thank you for offering to look out for the books for me.

Don't bother to answer this note, as I know you are very busy. But I shall hope to hear from you after you get settled in Paris.

Mean while, bon voyage, with my best regards to you all.

Sincerely

Walter Tracy
