Dear Professor Ferrater-Mora,

I am sorry that I did not see you during the holidays. I trust that you are well and are in the midst of writing another book.

I have a favor to request of you. There are two positions, both in the sunny climes of California, in which I am interested. Would you be so kind as to write letters on my behalf? The one to the University of California is more urgent than the one to Pomona, so write the latter at your leisure. I certainly would appreciate it if you would help me out in this respect.

I won't bore you by writing about the long Ontario winter. I do want to say, however, how much I enjoy teaching and I only wish that I could be both as profound and witty as you. I do hope to see you in May when I am in Philadelphia.

With best regards,

Elmer Willis
