Dear Mr. Mora:

Thank you for your letter of November 13, and for the return of the three incorrect books.

We have sent the three correct books to you on December 4, and assume you have received them, as of this date.

We apologize for this error for it is not like Brentano's to make such mistakes.

We look forward to being of more efficient service to you in the future and hope your holiday season will be happy and joyous.

Very truly yours,

Carol L. Winfield
