Dear José:

Thank you for your letter and summary list of your publications.

Something has come up: Professor Ruiz-Fornells, whom I mentioned to you earlier, will be in Madrid, March 19-27. He would, of course, like very much to be here when you visit the University. If it would be agreeable with you, we would like to change the dates to either March 3-5 or April 9-11. If neither of these dates is convenient for you, we will stick with our original plans.

Mrs. Stan Bloom, '62, is very active in alumni affairs and would like to arrange a dinner for you when you are here. Her idea is to invite all the alumni living in Alabama, which number around eighteen. Would this be all right with you? If so, once we get the dates finally settled, she will contact Mrs. Broughton. As you can see, things are getting quite complicated.

All best wishes for Christmas and the New Year.

Sincerely,

Kathleen Johnson Wu
