Dear Joe,

What a beautiful day it was & how I did enjoy visiting the College again & seeing you. Thank you very much for making arrangements so that I could come. I appreciated your inviting me for lunch - it was such fun.

We had a nice weekend in the country, but have been fearfully busy since we have been home. President Ford is here on a visit & we had dinner with him Tuesday evening (only 12 in all). Was an extraordinary opportunity. I am sure he is very competent, but what impressed me most was what an extremely fine person he seemed to be. Hope he runs, the future may be better.

My aunt arrives today & I come in tomorrow to stay through the weekend. Then back to peace & quiet & work.

I will write George Weaver a note. Hope we can get Mr. Togan, but I don't know how good the chances are. We still don't have official approval to search & there seem to be a lot of others interested. I will be sure that his dossier get a careful review.

Have a good trip this June - sounds great. Thanks again for everything.

Devotedly
C. A. T. R.
