

Dear Joe It was wonderful to read about you in that newspaper "Bayer Mauer" that the College sends to us. I am so happy that the University of Barcelona gave you such an <sup>honorary</sup> diploma and that dictionary and your other books. I am just full of smiles.

We haven't been to Philadelphia since I last saw you, but I do hope there will be some excuse to come up this spring. I have a niece at Bay Mauer as a freshman. From what I understand she loves it. Her name is: Deborah Li.

We are fine. I think I have finally found a journal for a paper I wrote on Tas. Ten. Zygon wants me to relate it to some contemporary scientific finding. One of the referees thought it was "beautiful"! Well!

JOYOUS CHRISTMAS

H.K.'s job is getting more & more demanding. He went on a trade mission with the Lt. Governor to Japan in November. The rewards are rather slim, however. I am getting load with my department and the students are really bad except for about 30%. But I know I would be happier without a

ANGEL OF THE ANNUNCIATION
Engraving by Martin Schongauer
German, before 1440-1491
Gift of Lydia Evans Tunnard in memory of W.G. Russell Allen
Museum of Fine Arts, Boston

John & I still love philosophy from your first lecture until today & I expect tomorrow. I am riding horseback twice a week which I enjoy very much, even do some jumping although I am not too good at it.

Hope to see you very soon.

Devotedly, Kathleen

December 18, 1979

PRINTED IN SWITZERLAND
FOR H. GEORGE CASPARI, INC.

WXB-12106

