

July 26

Dear José,

I enjoyed talking with you in June even though the occasion was not the happiest. You, nevertheless, cheered me up.

Hope you re having a nice summer. Preparations for trial are taking up a lot of my time, but fighting back has some satisfaction.

In the dispositions, my department chairman, who recommended me and is now backsliding, made belittling remarks about your reputation.

My lawyer suggested that I ask you to send her your list of publications, honors, etc. She could than have Hughes Leblanc testify to their accuracy. Her address is:

Mrs. Susan Williams Reeves
Reeves and Still
714 South 29th Street
Birmingham, Alabama 35233-2810

I told her you couldn't come to the trial, but you might mention it again. I wish you could! The date was set for November 4.

They are harassing my husband now. A jolly place!! We were in Europe for a couple of weeks and were able to get tickets to the last performance of the season of the Vienna Opera and saw "Turandot". How amusing for H.K.

Hope you are feeling better. We are staying cheerful in spite of the troubles.

Will let you know the outcome and thanks.

Devotedly,
[Signatura]
