Dear Joe,

This paper is finally in print. So, I am not just a logician after all.

I was in Philadelphia for a few hours at the meeting & had lunch with Mr.
Febaux. Saw some others I hadn't seen for years. Tempus fugit.

My promotion was not recommended by the dean. You met him when you were here - the one that can't spell. He said my research was excellent, but my teaching not good enough - no grounds given for his opinion. Anything can happen around here, especially, with our new, president.

"old" south

The first daffodils bloomed last week and we have had lots of sunshine.

75° today!

Hope everything is fine.

As ever,
Kathleen
