Dear Professor Ferrater-Mora:

I am returning here the alternate article which you sent to me several month ago as a possible choice for the first issue of our journal. The other article is in the process of being printed. Will send you the proofs as soon as they arrive (late in January).

I am enclosing here a letter which is better brought to your attention. May I ask you to reply to it as you see fit? If you feel that you should follow through on this suggestion, please let me know so that I have an addressplate made for him. You, of course, would keep the exchange journal for your personal use.

Best wishes for a happy Holiday Season,

Cordially,

Joseph J. Kockelmans
