Dear Professor Ferrater-Mora:

Thank you very much for your letter of July 24. I am gearing this letter to coincide with your return from Europe. Meanwhile I have mailed some stationery to Professors Muguerza and de Olaso.

Things are going well here. The subscription brochure is in the hands of a printer and is scheduled to be ready for mailing by September 1. If we could have the names of the Spanish speaking contributors by August 15 or so, we could still include them in the brochure, I think. Do you think that this would be possible? I really believe that they should be included in this first piece of publicity. Perhaps, if necessary, we can send a second brochure in Spanish with the names of the Spanish contributors later.

We have taken your suggestion not to include the Portuguese language at this point. Perhaps later something different can be done if the situation calls for it.

I hope you had a fine vacation.

Cordial Greetings,
