Dear Professor Ferrater-Mora:

Thank you very much for your letter of November 4. I am very pleased to note that Professor de Olaso has been able to start things moving in South America.

Indeed, I am counting on your evaluation of all contributions in Spanish and hope that you will adopt relatively high standards because of the international character of the journal. At Purdue we have decided to maintain this policy for all contributions. It may cause some difficulties, but we believe we must strive for excellence. - It is my plan to follow your recommendations in regard to any Spanish language article.

I was happy to have the opportunity to meet you and Mrs. Ferrater-Mora at Purdue. I am only sorry that there was not more time for a real conversation and a discussion of some issues. This certainly must come the next time we meet.

Again my thanks for your continued cooperation. I look forward to receiving some articles. We hope to send the copy for the first issue to the printer, in a week or so.

Sincerely Yours,

Joseph J. Kockelmans
